

Nominating Committee

Rev. Ashley Rossi, Nominee: Moderator of the Presbytery of Philadelphia

The Rev. Ashley Rossi, current Vice Moderator for the Presbytery of Philadelphia, has served as Associate Pastor at Carmel Presbyterian Church in Glenside since July 2016. In that role, Rev. Rossi is responsible for education, youth ministry, and mission. She has also served as Acting Head of Staff during the transition time between the retirement of their long-term pastor and the arrival of their current Interim Pastor. Rev. Rossi's commitment to our presbytery has been demonstrated in her leadership as Vice Moderator to our Commission on Resources and Creative Ministries, encouraging our congregations to consider creative initiatives in an effort to strengthen their witness. Rev. Rossi has been a member of the Presbyterian Youth

Triennium leadership team. She also currently serves on the Administrative Commission for Wissahickon Presbyterian Church, as they continue to replant a ministry in the Manayunk area of Philadelphia. This past year, Rev. Rossi has worked closely with our Presbytery leadership on issues that have framed our local and national landscape, such as racism and economic disparity, reflecting on how the church is to respond at a time such as this. Ordained in 2014 in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Rev. Rossi "found her home" with the PC(USA) soon after she began her service and ministry within our presbytery. Prior to being ordained, Rev. Rossi worked as a Certified Public Accountant (she is still licensed) and still appreciates a detailed pie chart or a complex Excel sheet. Rev. Rossi currently lives in Glenside with her husband (Jim), three human children (JD, Sonny, and Maggie), and a pit bull (Stella).

Rev. Ted Mingle, Nominee: Vice-Moderator of the Presbytery of Philadelphia

The Rev. Ted Mingle currently serves as Pastor/Head of Staff at the Lower Providence Presbyterian Church where he has been since 2013. A member of our Commission on Ministry, Rev. Mingle is committed to coming alongside our congregations during times of transition, celebration, and challenges. His passion for ministry comes from Micah 6:8, "What does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God." Rev. Mingle believes that 'Acting justly and loving mercy' is one of the great callings God has given to the church. He believes more than ever the church needs to be acting on this great calling. Prior to joining our Presbytery, Rev. Mingle served as a Senior Associate Pastor for Family Ministry and Discipleship at Highland Presbyterian Church in Lititz, PA. He has also served in various other pastoral positions in Moorestown and Media, PA. Rev. Mingle brings a commitment to equipping lay leadership within the local church in an effort to be a witness in the world – especially during this season of unrest. Rev. Mingle is married to Heather and father of two children (Taylor and Jacob). They are all avid runners and Rev. Mingle is a die-hard Philadelphia sports fan.