

Ecumenical Advocacy Days

April 4-April 8

Washington, DC

Troubling the Waters for the Healing of the World

Who? You!!! In 2019, we gather at a time in which people of faith and conscience are again called to stand in the prophetic stream of those who have come before us, those who were not afraid to stir up #GoodTrouble for the sake of God's kingdom. Join the Presbytery of Genesee Valley delegation to Ecumenical Advocacy Days (EAD) and acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to advocate for justice on behalf of the oppressed.

What? Today we are deeply troubled by what we see in the world. Through worship, educational and training workshops, and advocacy, we will beckon the Spirit to "Trouble the Waters" as depicted in John 5:1-9, calling on God to bring healing to our nation and world.

Early Bird registration for Ecumenical Advocacy Days (EAD) continues through March 9th at <https://advocacydays.org/>. Estimated total cost of this conference is $725 (registrations, housing, meals).

Transportation for this important advocacy event is being underwritten by the Presbytery's Tools & Training Working Group! Reserve your seat in the van by contacting Susan Orr at sorr@pbygenval.org by Feb 21st Scholarship money is available from the Tools & Training Group to cover the cost of registration. Apply at <https://pbygenval.org/grants-working-group/scholarship-application/>. Scholarships for Young Adults (ages 18-35) are available from EAD at <https://advocacydays.org/>. Ask your congregation for financial help, too!

For more details or to reserve your spot, contact Susan Orr by February 21st at sorr@pbygenval.org or (585) 242-0099
