NOMINATING ELDERS & DEACONS

for Arch Street
Presbyterian Church

"Therefore, friends, select from among yourselves seven people of good standing, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this task, while we, for our part, will devote ourselves to prayer and to serving the word."

—Acts 6:3-4

WHO ARE ELDERS?

The attributes of an elder:

- Technically called “ruling elder” in the PC(USA) with pastors called “teaching elders,” elders demonstrate particular gifts to share in discernment of God’s Spirit and governance of God’s people.
- Ruling elders should be persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership, generosity, and compassion.

The responsibility of an elder:

- Ruling elders, together with teaching elders, exercise leadership, government, spiritual discernment and discipline and have responsibilities for the life of a congregation as well as the whole church, including ecumenical relationships.
- When elected by the congregation, they shall serve faithfully as members of the session and support the committee structure of the church.
(PCUSA Book of Order G-2.03)

WHO ARE DEACONS?

The attributes of a deacon:

- Deacons should demonstrate compassion, witness and service after the example of Jesus Christ.
- Deacons should be persons of spiritual character, honest repute, of exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgment.
(PCUSA Book of Order G-6.0400)

The responsibility of a deacon is to:

- Help create a church where people get to know one another and walk through life’s joys and challenges together.
- As far as it is possible, foster a loving community where congregants feel attended to and cared for.
- In concert with the pastoral staff, minister to those in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress.
- Pray for the church and her individual members and leaders, both supporting and challenging individuals and the community to follow after Jesus Christ.
